

DSI Announces Slate of Candidates for 2020 Board Election

The Decision Sciences Institute (DSI) Board of Directors received and approved a recommended slate of candidates from its 2019 - 2020 Nominating Committee at the November Board meeting. DSI is pleased to announce the following DSI members will be running for a position on the 2020 - 2021 Board. (All candidates are listed in alphabetical order by last name.)

President- Elect

Joy Field, Boston College
Gyula Vastag, Corvinus University

Vice President of Finance

Christina McCart, Roanoke College

Vice President European Division

Bart MacCarthy, Nottingham University

Vice President Conferences

Victor Prybutok, University of North Texas

Vice President Member Services

Mohan Rao, Texas A&M University
Marco Sartor, University of Udine

Vice President Professional Development

Q. B. Chung, Villanova University
Tingting Yan, Wayne State University

As per DSI procedures, nominations were solicited and received from the membership. If no more than one qualified nomination was received for an open Board position, the slate may remain with one candidate for that position. Additional nominations may be submitted to the Home Office for any position on the slate by January 10, accompanied by a petition signed by at least 5% of the voting-eligible membership requesting such addition. More information on requesting an addition to the slate can be requested from the Home Office.

A reminder that only active dues-paying members are entitled to vote. The cut-off date for active membership will be Friday, January 24. Members joining after this date will not be eligible for voting in this election. The election will open on January 29, 2020 and run for twenty (20) days.

Questions? Contact the Home Office at info@decisionssciences.org