

DSI Announces Slate of Candidates for 2021 Board Election

The Decision Sciences Institute (DSI) Board of Directors received and approved a recommended slate of candidates from its 2020 - 2021 Nominating Committee at the November Board meeting. DSI is pleased to announce the following DSI members will be running for a position on the 2021 - 2022 Board. (Candidates are listed in alphabetical order by last name for each position.)

President- Elect

Natalie Simpson, University at Buffalo (SUNY)

Vice President Information Systems

Koray Ozpolat, University of Rhode Island

VP Marketing

Jason Deane, Virginia Tech

VP Publications

David Dobryzkowski, University of Arkansas

Funda Sahin, University of Houston

VP Americas

No nominations received

VP Asia-Pacific

No nominations received

Secretary

Bertie Greer, Wayne State University

As per DSI Policies & Procedures, nominations were solicited and received from the membership. If no more than one qualified nomination was received for an open Board position, the slate may remain with one candidate for that position. Additional nominations may be submitted to the Home Office for any position on the slate by January 10, accompanied by a petition signed by at least 5% of the voting-eligible membership requesting such addition. More information on requesting an addition to the slate can be requested from the Home Office.

As per DSI Policies & Procedures, should no qualified candidate nominations come forward, any open position is declared vacant and the rules of sitting vacancies on the Board of Directors of DSI shall apply. Thus the position shall be filled by appointment by the Board of Directors.

A reminder that only active dues-paying members are entitled to vote. The cut-off date for active membership will be Friday, January 22, 2021. Members joining after this date will not be eligible for voting in this election. The election will open on January 27, 2021 and run for twenty (20) days.
