

1972

HEADLINE NEWS: 11 Israeli athletes killed at Munich Olympic games

Officers

President: George W. Summers

President-Elect: Rodger Collons

Past President and Executive Director:

Dennis Grawoig

Secretary: James Black

Vice Presidents

Finance: Eugene Zieha

Academic Affairs: James Sorensen

Programs & Meetings: Stanley Hardy

Membership: Vincent Cangelosi

Cirriculum Development:

Albert Heinlein

Planning and Development:

Manfred Hopfe

Student Liason: Albert Simone

Directors

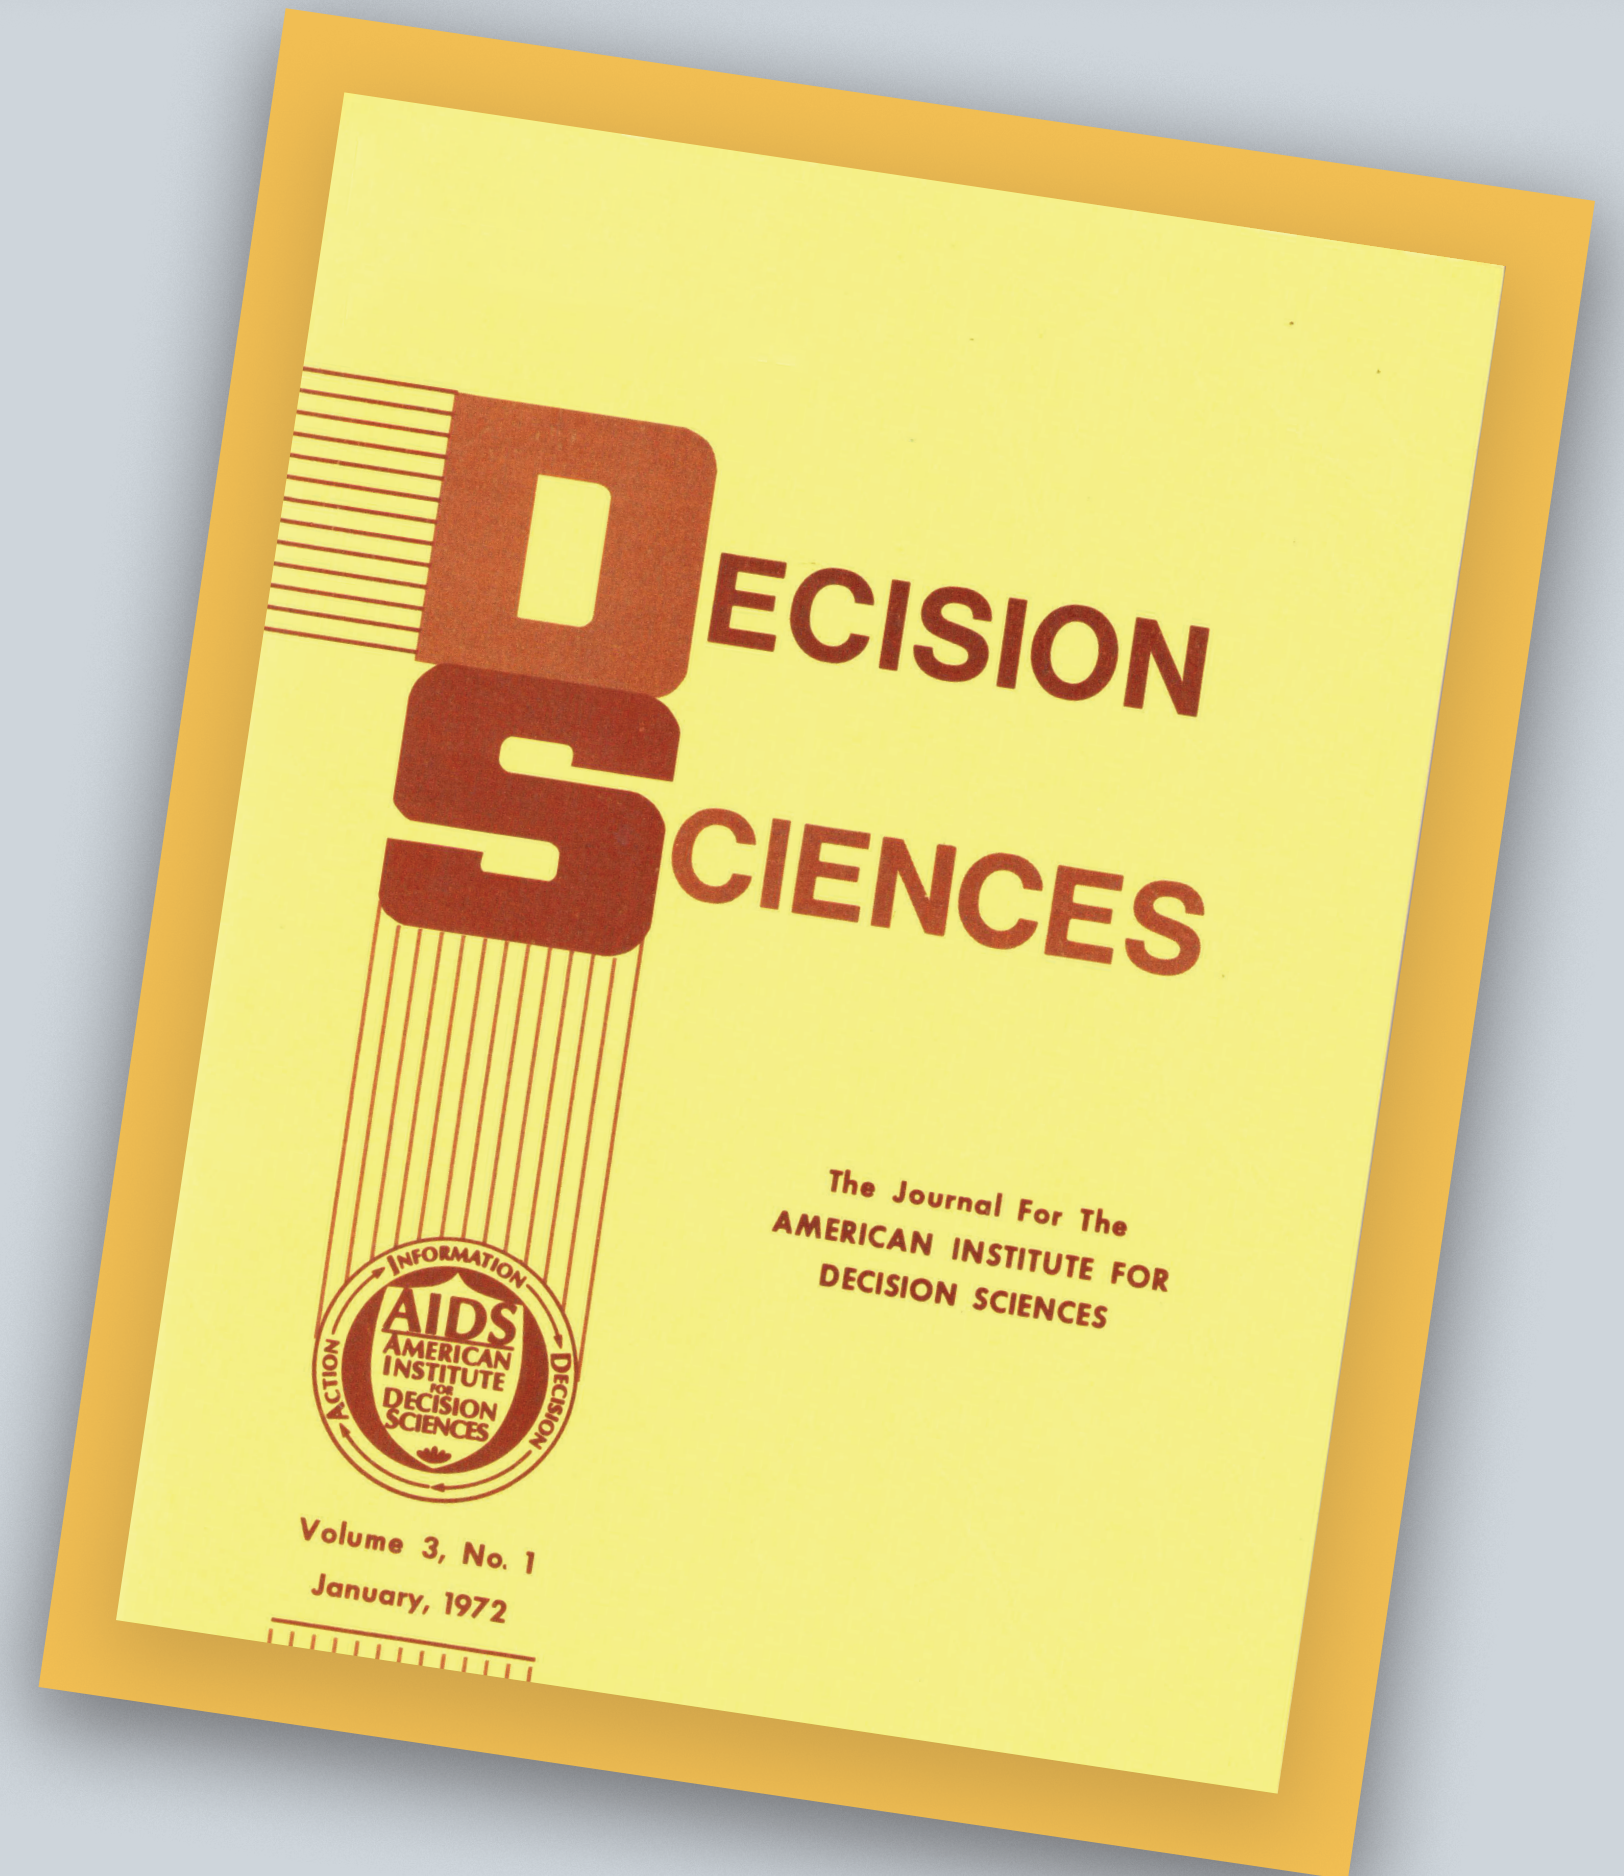

Placement: John Megley

Computer Services: Gary Wicklund

President
George Summers

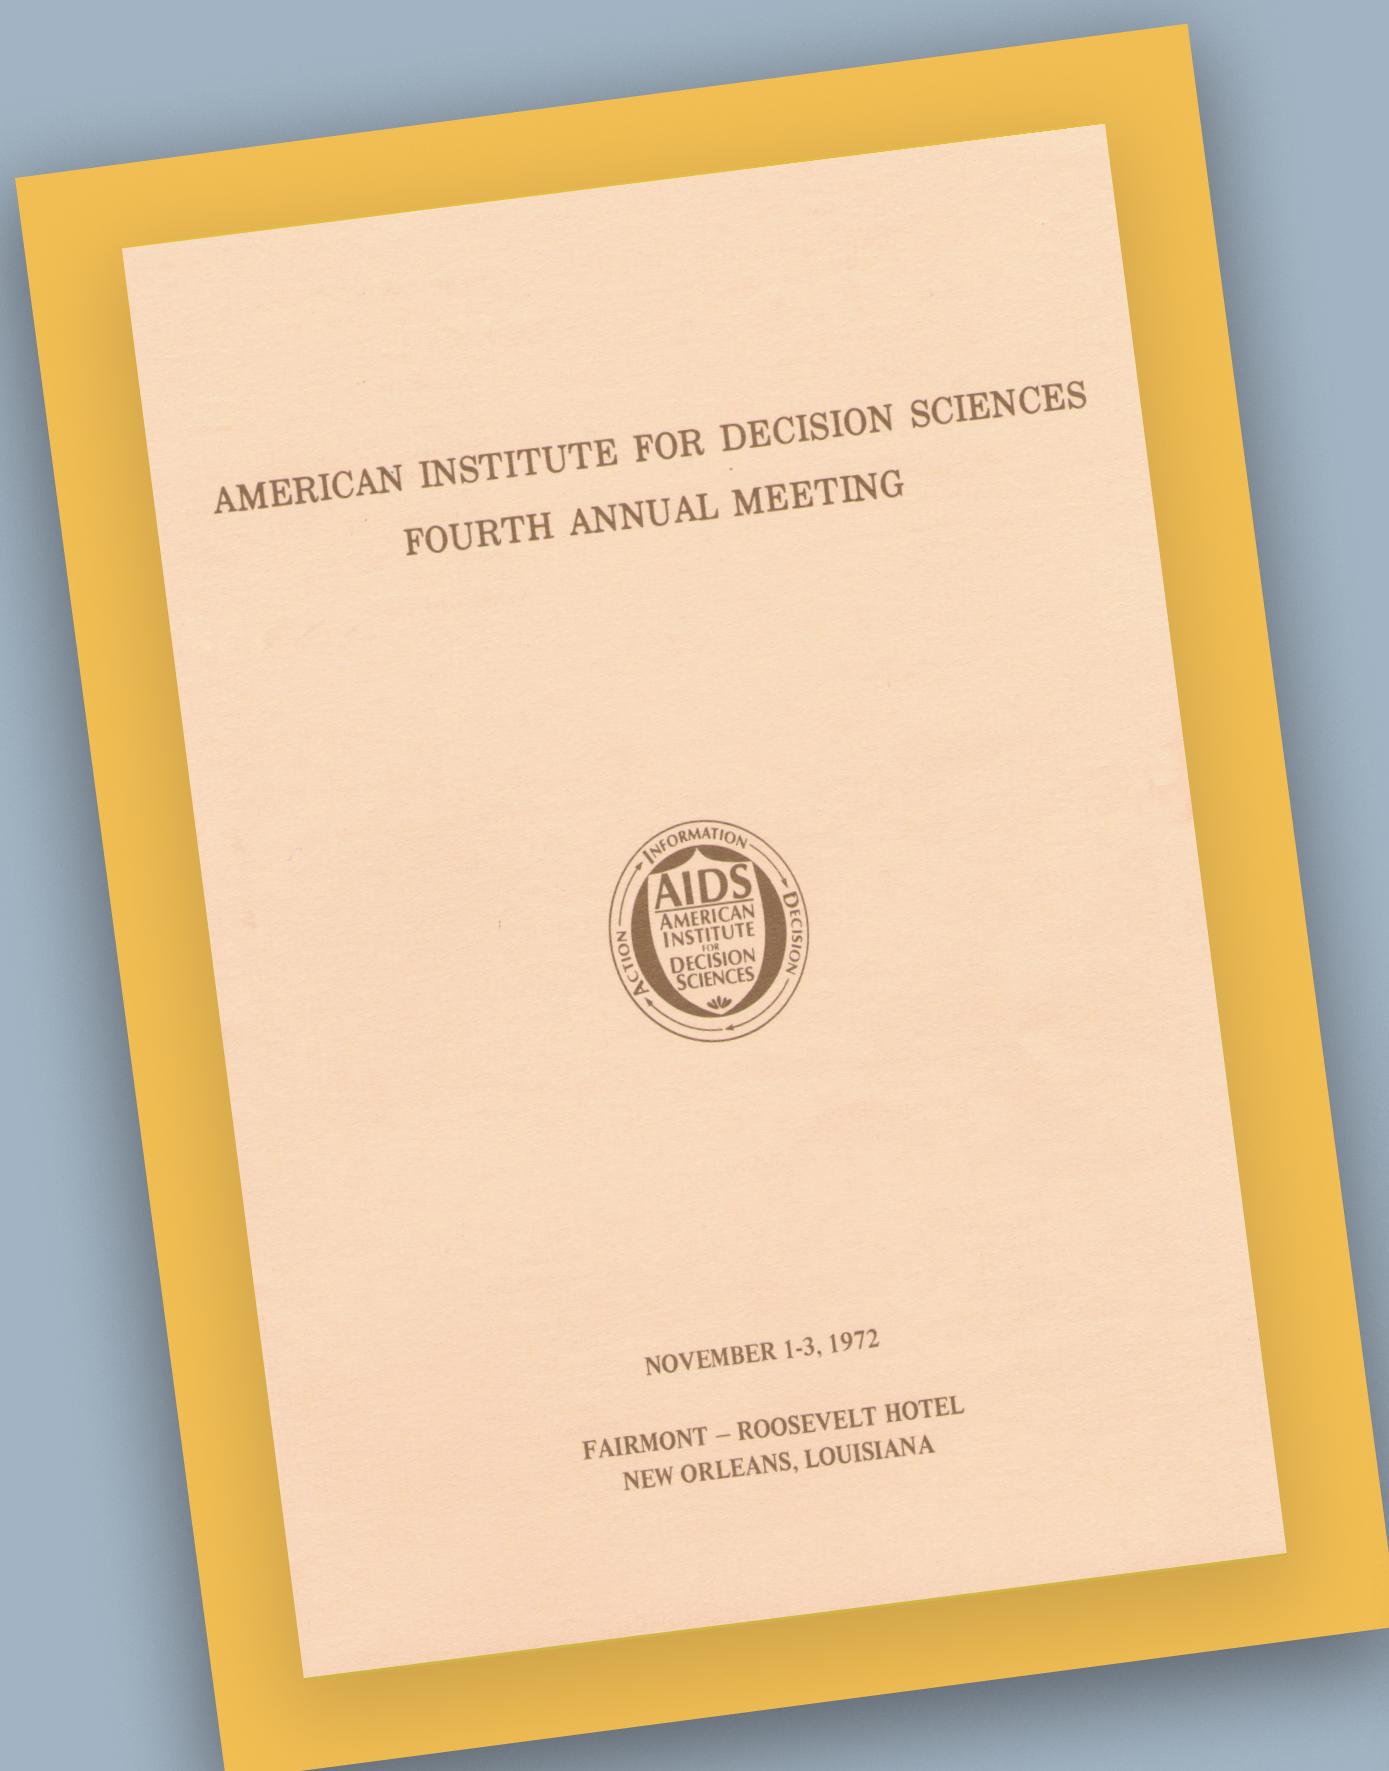

NEDSI
organizes
in Boston,
MA in May.
Membership
tops 1600.

AIDS enters publishing business

AIDS purchases an IBM MT/SC composer - can now perform its own typesetting and compositing for the Journal, plus expand efforts to include Innovative Education.

4th Annual Meeting November 1 - 3, 1972 New Orleans, LA

Program Chair
Gene Groff

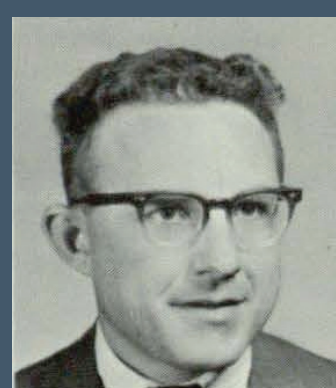

Presentation at 1972 conference

Special Interest Roundtable Discussions at 1972 conference

Dennis Grawoig (far right), George
Summers (r) and Rodger Collons (podium)

Distinguished Service Award - Rodger
Collons (l) and Albert J. Simone (r)

