

1978

HEADLINE NEWS: Camp David “Framework for Peace” signed by Israel and Egypt

Officers

President: Charles P. Bonini

President-Elect: John Neter

Past President: Lawrence L. Schkade

Secretary: Linda G. Sprague

Treasurer: V. Thomas Dock

Vice Presidents

Sandra F. Beldt

William Beranek

Elwood S. Buffa

Larry L. Cummings

Richard F. Gonzalez

Joseph F. Hair, Jr.

George C. Philippatos

James E. Sorensen

D. Clay Whybark

Gary A. Wicklund

Directors

Placement: V. Thomas Dock

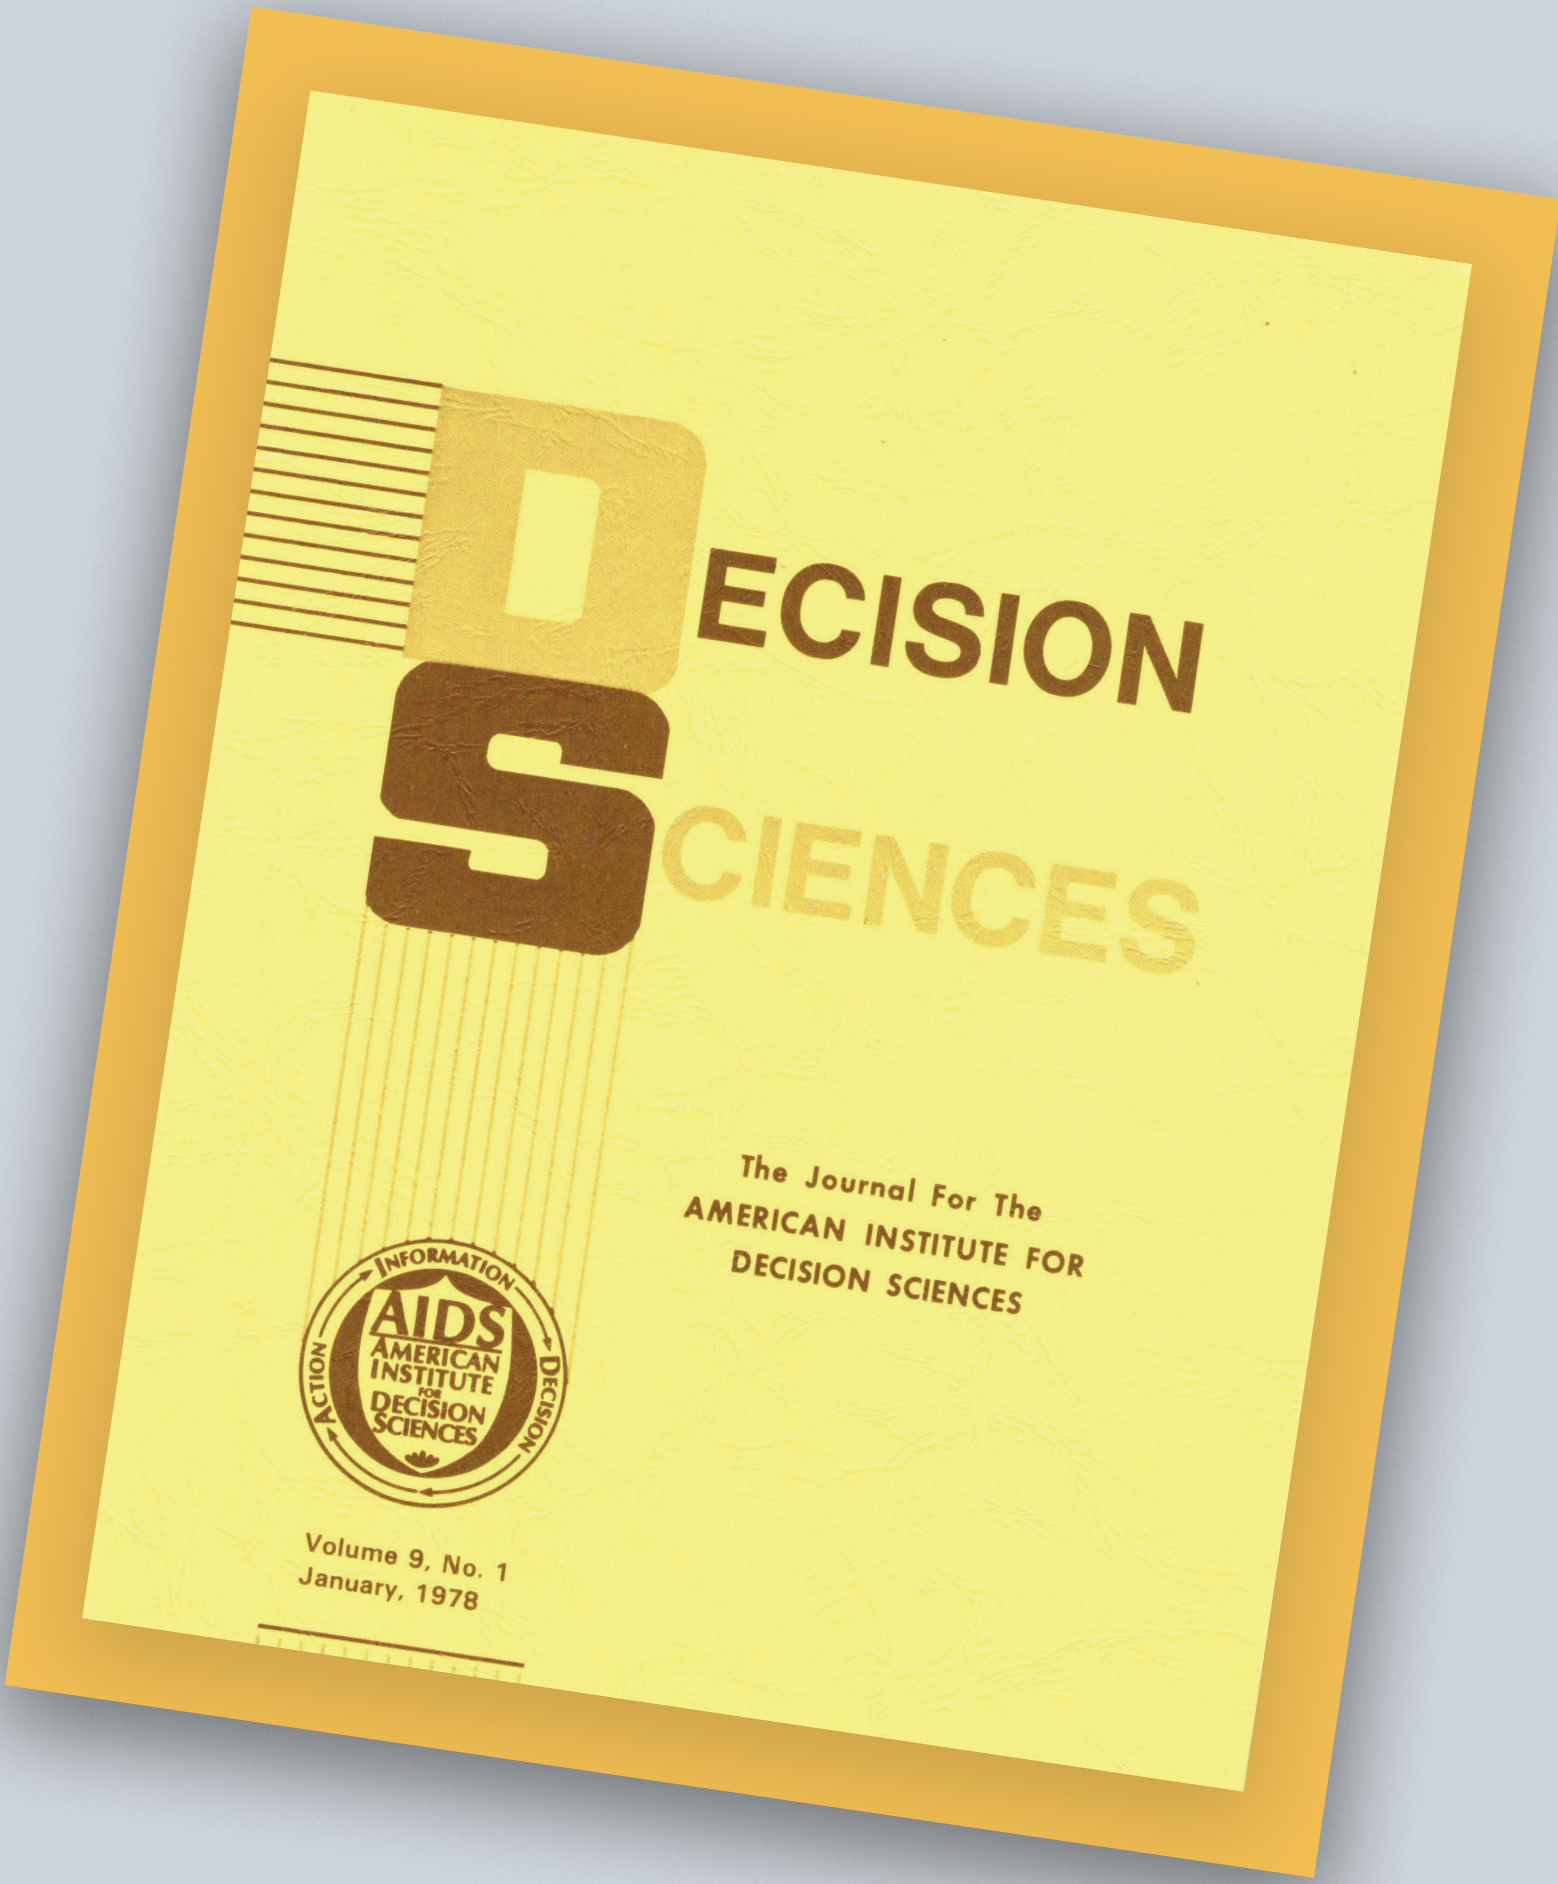

Computer Services: Gary Wicklund

Executive Director: Dennis Grawoig

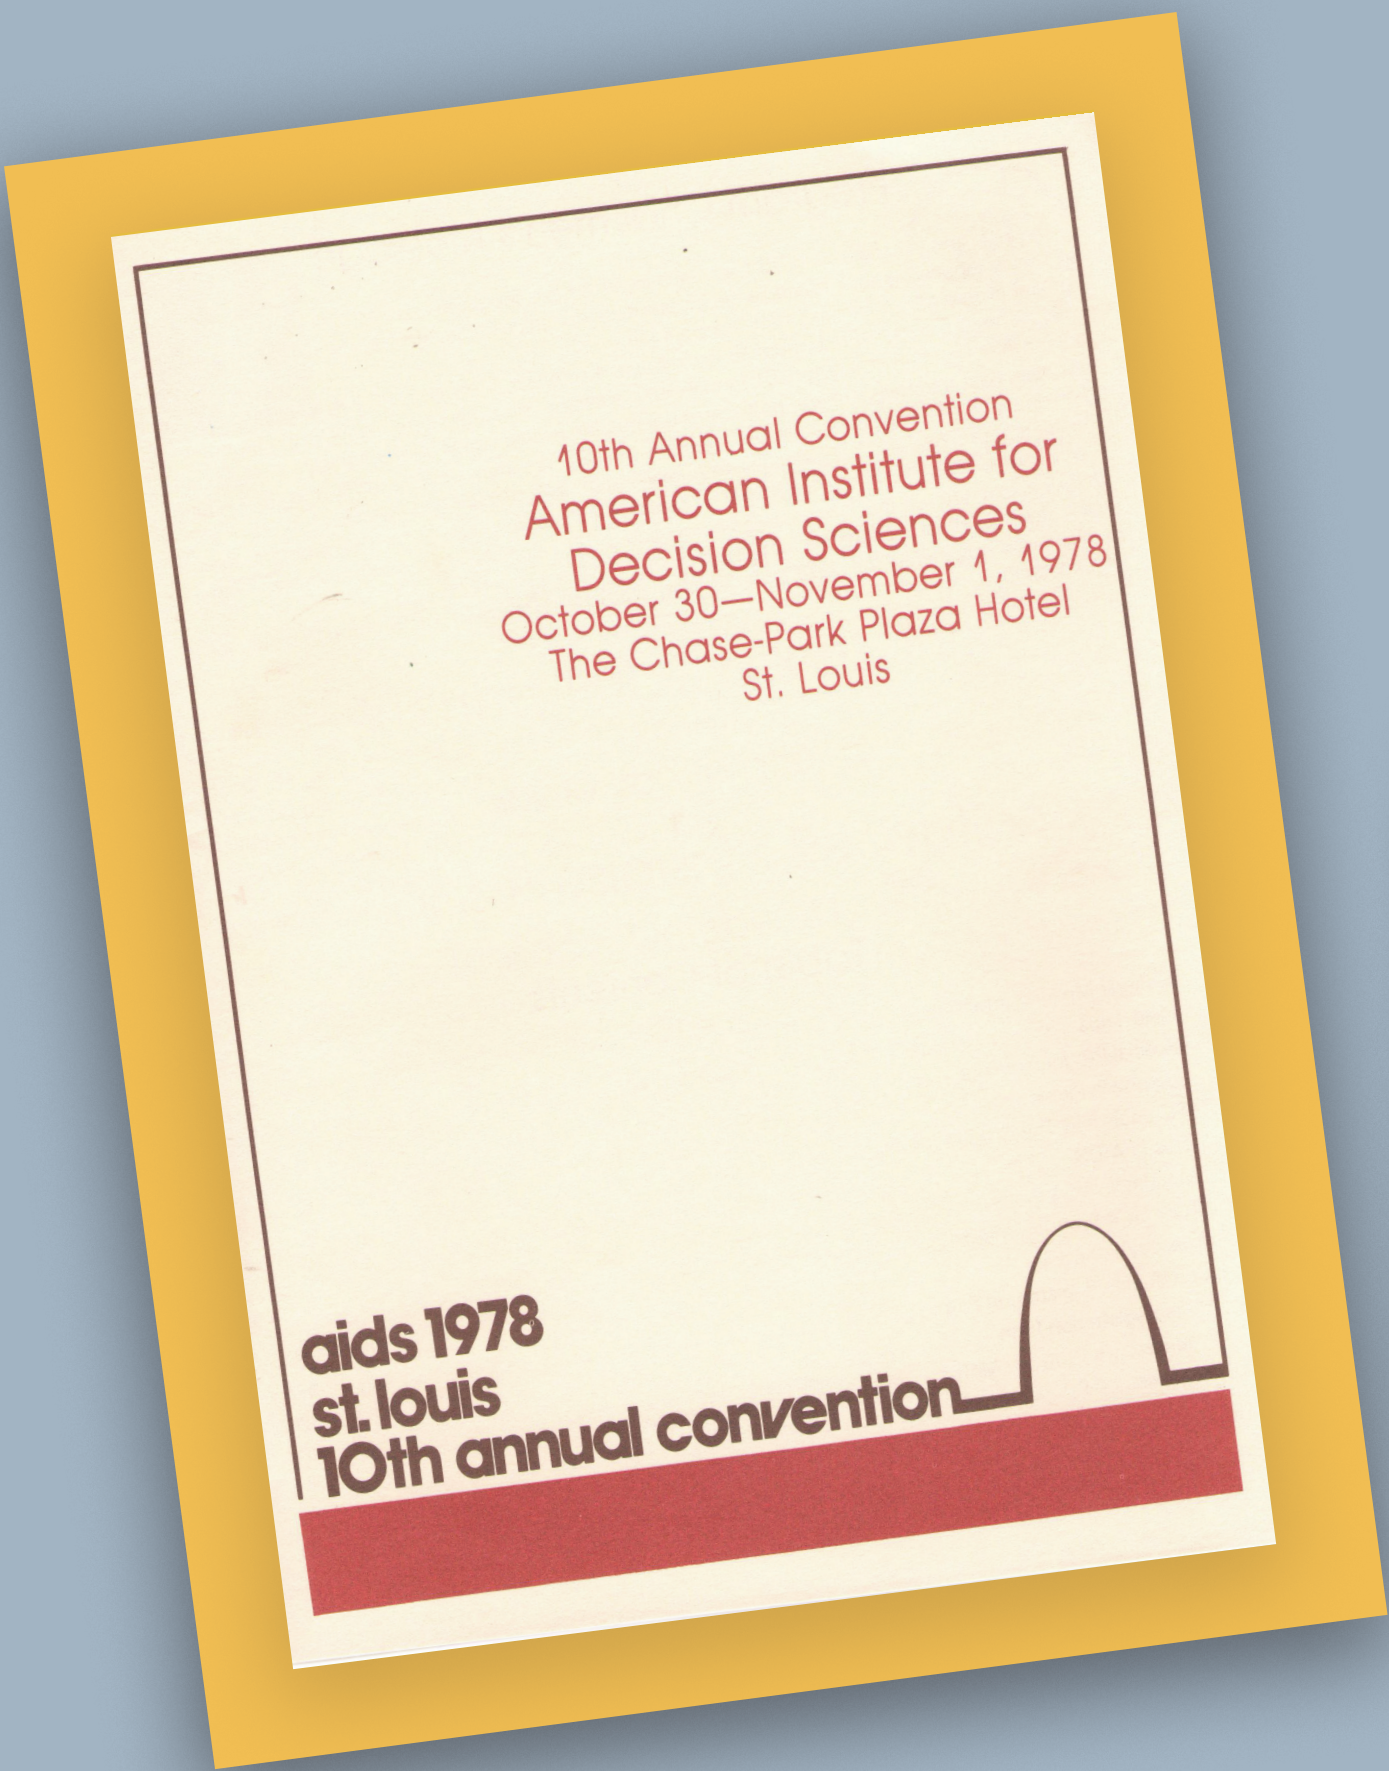

President
Charles P. Bonini

Officer term start/end moves from convention date to March 31.

Changes to Bylaw 7 of Constitution Voted Down

Proposed changes to allow non-AIDS members as regional members was voted against by 2/3 of those voting. Maintains “No subdivision shall accept as members individuals who are not members of AIDS.”

10th Annual Meeting October 30 - November 1, 1978 St. Louis, MO

Program Chairmen
James E. Reinmuth,
Larry Richards and Richard Steers

AIDS Fellows

Charles Bonini

Elwood S. Buffa

Larry Cummings

Ralph Day

Ira Horowitz

William S. Peters

James Sorenson

CITATIONS FOR 1978 FELLOWS OF AIDS

Charles P. Bonini, Associate Professor of Management Science, Graduate School of Business, Stanford University; for his excellent contributions to Quantitative Methods and Statistics through research and publications; for his national leadership of AIDS as President and his extensive service to AIDS in numerous other capacities.

Elwood S. Buffa, Professor of Operations Management, Graduate School of Management, University of California—Los Angeles; for his national leadership in the field of Operations Management; for his outstanding pedagogy in Operations Management especially as represented by his textbooks; for significant contributions to the practice of Operations Management and Decision Sciences; and for important contributions to AIDS programs and publications; for his service to AIDS as Vice President.

Larry L. Cummings, Professor of Organizational Behavior and H. I. Romnes Faculty Fellow, Graduate School of Business, University of Wisconsin—Madison; for his original research and publications in the Behavioral Sciences; and Organization Psychology in particular; for his editorial contributions to Decision Sciences, other management journals, and series of books; for his leading role in the growth of the Behavioral Sciences in AIDS programs and publications; for his service to AIDS as Vice President.

Ralph L. Day, Professor of Business Administration and Chairman of the Department of Marketing, School of Business, Indiana University; for his scholarship and publications in Marketing and for his role in integrating Marketing into AIDS; for his long-term service to AIDS on its Council, committees, regional and national programs; and as Vice President.

Ira Horowitz, Professor of Management, Department of Management, College of Business, University of Florida; for his research and publications, particularly on Quantitative Analysis in business and government; his Editorship of Decision Sciences; and his service as Vice President of AIDS.

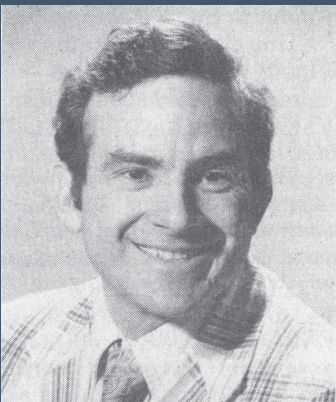

William S. Peters, Professor of Management Science, Anderson Schools of Management, University of New Mexico; for his tireless efforts as second editor of Decision Sciences; for his contributions to the field of Statistics through his teaching and textbooks; for his service to AIDS on its Council and Executive Board Committees.

James E. Sorensen, Professor of Accountancy, School of Accountancy, College of Business Administration, University of Denver; for his outstanding Editorship of Decision Sciences (1975-1977); for his contributions to the field of Accounting by his publications and teachings; for his service to AIDS as Vice President.

From 1978 President's Luncheon Program

Distinguished Service Award
Thomas Dock

AIDS Fellow
Ira Horowitz